

VideoLeap

Interaction with the videos on web always have required interaction with the another piece of hardware like, keyboard and mouse.

But what if the interaction was in more natural way? We created a chrome extension which makes use of the leap motion and gives you the functionalities to play/pause/fast-forward/rewind video or control volume by just doing very simple gestures in front of a leap motion controller.